

«What a garden» game

This game is popular among children of nursery age or elementary school. The players will stand in a semicircle (horseshoe) order. The players will hold one hand stretched and waving. The game commander stands in the middle and with a loud voice will say «what a garden full of grapes and raisings and wow a hornet came and bite me!». In saying these words the game commander will touch one of his body parts e.g. nose, ear or hand etc; and the players standing has to follow by holding the same part of their body. This game is similar to that popular «Simon says» game known in Europe or elsewhere. The player or players who will not repeat the gestures of the game commander or are slow will be losing the game. For those who lose the game will be a penalty imposed and they should bring some treats such as dried fruits or nuts etc.
