

«Quail flew»

This game also popular among children and youth is played during the summer in the fields or outdoors. Players in this game sit in circle close to one another with their legs stretched towards the center. While sitting the players hold one of their hands in their back. A game commander is chosen who will announce that «quail flew» and will raise either of his hands and the players have to repeat the same action. In occasion of both hands are raised the players may fall in their back. If the players fall or raise the wrong hand it is considered to be losing the game.

Although the name of the game is called «quail flew» the game commander may call another bird. The other name for this game is «par-par» that is «fly-fly».
